E-HORS Chosen as the Hospitality System for Training in Two Hotel Schools

Surabaya Hotel School and Mater Amabilis Catholics Vocational High School Surabaya, two major hotel schools in Surabaya have decided to use E-HORS (Electronic Hotel Operations and Reservation System) as the hospitality system for training students in their school.

An agreement was signed by the headmaster of Mater Amabilis Catholics Vocational High School Surabaya, Mrs Sr. Yosefa SSps and E-Hors CEO, Mr Wouter Piët. For Surabaya Hotel School, the agreement was signed by the school's Executive Director, Mr Bagus Supomo and E-Hors CEO, Mr Wouter Piët.

E-Hors is passionate about educating hospitality students regarding the operations of the hospitality industry and the advantages of using one integrated solution to cover all the needs of a hotel. Therefore, E-HORS was provided to the schools with a minimal fee.

"We are delighted that students are able to learn E-HORS as we believe that E-HORS is a system that will improve a hotel's efficiency, productivity and profits. Students will be able to get better job opportunities with E-Hors's wide customer base in Malaysia and Indonesia," said Mr Wouter Piet, the CEO of E-Hors.

Surabaya Hotel School is a hotel and tourism academy which celebrated its 20th anniversary on 11 November 2008. It provides Food & Beverage, Front Office, Housekeeping, Pastry and Bakery trainings to students from all over Indonesia.

Mater Amabilis Catholics Vocational High School Surabaya offers a practical approach to teaching their students. One of the courses that it offers is Hotel Management which covers all areas of a hotel's needs.
